

MEMBERS, TRAVEL POLICY COMMITTEE:

The Deputy Director for Support has requested that the CIA Travel Policy Committee study the feasibility of extending travel and transportation benefits relating to domestic death of employees and domestic retirement of employees who are not participants in the CIA Retirement and Disability System (CIARDS). Correspondence and other background material germane to this problem is attached as tabs.

TAB	DESCRIPTION
A	Memo from Special Support Assistant, DDS to Chairman, CIA Travel Policy Committee (with attachments), dated 7 May 1969, expressing the DDS request that the Committee consider extending travel and transportation benefits relating to domestic deaths and retirement to employees who are not participants in the Agency Retirement and Disability System (CIARDS).
B	Memo for Director of Finance from DDS, dated 26 June 1968, Subject: Administrative Authorities - Travel and Transportation Expenses.
C	Memo for Executive Director-Comptroller from DDS, dated 21 May 1968, Subject: Administrative Authorities (Approval of dependent's travel and transportation expenses when CIARDS participant dies while assigned to [redacted])
D	Memo for Executive Director-Comptroller from DDS; dated 30 April 1968, Subject: Administrative Authorities (Approval of travel and transportation expenses for employees who retire within the continental United States under CIARDS).
E	Memo for Director of Finance from Executive Officer, DDS, dated 24 June 1968, as cover for [redacted] memo to EO-DDS, dated 3 May 1968, in which the Executive Director-Comptroller requests consideration be given to extend Tab C and D benefits to employees who are not CIARDS participants.
F	Memo for DDS from Director of Personnel, dated 9 August 1968, Subject: Administrative Authorities (response to Tab E request).
G	Basic background papers on the evolution of the adoption of Administrative Authorities of the Foreign Service Act, or other laws.

[Redacted]
Chairman, Travel Policy Committee

25X1A9A